

JANUARY EVENT WEBINAR INVITATION

Hosted by the:
Association of Administrative Professionals (AAP) – Moncton Branch

Pre-Recorded Webinar:
ASSERT YOURSELF (...AND FINALLY GET YOUR VOICE HEARD)

Presenter: Rhonda Scharf, CSP - On the Right Track™

Dates: January 21-27, 2019

A pre-recorded 1-hour webinar you can attend from your home or workplace. You can listen to the recording as often as you like for seven days during the week of January 21-27, 2019.

Want to make a real difference in your workplace and life by asserting yourself. Want to express what you really need? Do you yearn to say what you're really thinking without destroying relationships? In the webinar, you'll learn:

- How being assertive helps you AND others make better decisions (position yourself as a leader)
- The difference being assertive versus a bully or doormat (earn the respect you deserve)
- A secret to knowing if it's time to be assertive....or not (decrease your stress, simplify your life)
- A simple 4-step process to be assertive (increase your effectiveness)
- 3 tips to stop the tears and keep your cool (appear in total control)

Being assertive means communicating so your voice is heard. You have an option and a right to express it. This session will show you how.

Event fee: $5.00

RSVP

Registration is required through the Association's Moncton Branch Eventbrite site before January 18, 2019.

The link to the webinar will be emailed to participants upon confirmation of registration and receipt of payment.